

Christmas 2014

Dear family and friends,

The past year had us mostly near home, enjoying family, friends, hobbies and our numerous volunteer activities.

In May, we helped Sally's daughter, Kelly and her family move into a new home in Kaysville, UT.

Mark continues work on his model train layout.

Sally visited her newest grandchild several times. Anabella and her parents, Kevin and Anastasia, live in Mesa, AZ.

Sally undertook another quilting assignment - this bedspread for our bedroom. She was surprised how well it turned out!

In July, we celebrated the 20th anniversary of when we met and our 10th wedding anniversary. We took a train ride to Santa Barbara and stayed at a B&B.

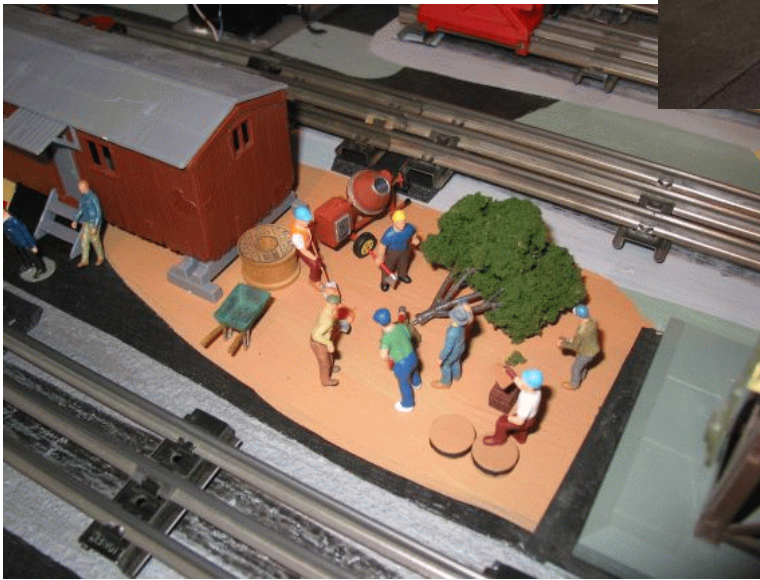

Anabella's grandparents, Olga and Sergei, visited from Russia. They stayed with us for a few days which included a picnic at La Jolla Cove. Also in the photo is son, Kevin's family and daughter, Kim's family.

We had a visit from Mark's roommate from his college days at Carnegie-Mellon. Ron Herold flew in from VA. He is a pilot so he actually "flew in".

FIVE grandkids plus 10 more adults all went to see “Wicked” at the Civic Theater on Thanksgiving Eve!.

Max Roundy was a great help in adding more people and scenes to Mark’s train layout.

We hope your holiday season is filled with wonder.
